Copper Owl Accounting & Tax Launches to Empower Businesses with Financial Clarity and A Personal Touch

Chicago, Illinois — May 19, 2025 — Financial expert and industry leader Lauren Kovar, CPA, CITP, CGMA, has officially launched Copper Owl Accounting & Tax, a firm dedicated to providing businesses with the essential financial operations and insights needed to drive growth, stability, and long-term success.

Founded on the belief that business owners shouldn't have to navigate financial complexities alone, Copper Owl delivers expert accounting, tax, bookkeeping, and payroll services designed to help clients streamline operations, maintain compliance, and focus on what truly matters—their business.

"At Copper Owl, we're not just recording transactions or balancing books—we're building the financial foundation for smart, strategic business decisions," said Lauren Kovar, Managing Partner. "We handle the critical financial functions that keep a business running smoothly, so owners and leaders can focus on the mission of their business."

With a personalized, efficiency-driven approach, Copper Owl ensures businesses maintain organized, real-time financial records, making financial processes seamless and stress-free. The firm offers a full suite of services, including bookkeeping, payroll, tax preparation, and compliance support—all tailored to meet the unique needs of each client.

"Business owners need more than just tax preparation; they need a financial team that understands their business inside and out," added Kovar. "At Copper Owl, we cut through the clutter, providing the clarity and confidence."

Copper Owl Accounting & Tax is now accepting clients and looks forward to helping businesses thrive with confidence and clarity.
